Learning Objectives for THE WAVE: CV conversation series:

- Evaluate and manage the risk of gastrointestinal (GI) bleeding in patients requiring anticoagulation
- Individualize anticoagulation for AF based on patient characteristics, including age, body mass index (BMI), renal function, and history of percutaneous coronary intervention PCI
- Counsel patients with AF on the use of wearable technology for heart rate monitoring
- Appropriately manage VTE, including in patients with COVID-19
- Stratify risk of stroke in patients with AF according to current guideline recommendations
